

Handwritten text in a decorative, calligraphic script, likely a historical or religious document. The text is written in black ink on aged, yellowed paper. The script is highly stylized, featuring large, ornate letters and flourishes. The text is arranged in a single line, with the words "Handwritten" and "Text" visible. The paper is framed by a decorative border consisting of two parallel lines on each side. The background shows a roll of paper with a large, circular opening in the center.
